

ANNO DOMINI 2022

INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

Dear friends,

Verbum supernum! O heavenly Word! What a comfort for us to see thee in this adorable crib! O how this sight is sweet and consoling for us! Indeed, so many horrors and scandals, in the Church and in the world, appear on every side, Satan seems to reign supreme. We thank thee then Divine Infant, for coming to comfort us!

In the Church we were promised a new springtime, in the world, a bright tomorrow! None of this has come to pass, but everywhere there is only ignominy, disorder, apostasy, paganism, idolatry, and even a large return to witchcraft. Without the grace of God, the whole world ecclesial or secular, can never recover joy and peace.

We thank thee then, O Infant Jesus, for strengthening us in order that we may remain faithful to thy teachings and always desirous better to love and serve thy holy Church, that Church which is the true and only Ark of the Covenant and of Salvation for all mankind.

Thanks be to thee, O good Jesus! In the silence and peace of Christmas, we adore thee and give thanks to thy Divine Father for having sent thee to protect us in these times of terrible trials! Keep safe our institutes, our families and the many vocations and conversions brought about by the great age-old Roman Catholic liturgy.

Come Infant Jesus and save us!

M<sup>gr</sup> Gilles Wach,
Prior General.

I am not terribly concerned about living out these brief and passing moments, so long as I can live eternally with my God in glory. Provided our eternity is a happy one, why worry about the passing moments of trial in this life? Everything that has no bearing on eternity is mere vanity.

A job done too eagerly and hurriedly is never done well. We perform actions quickly enough when we do them well. People who hurry about with tormented anxiety and solicitude never accomplish much, nor do they do anything well.

Saint Francis de Sales

The reason why we never receive the grace of sanctification is that we do not allow the Lord to reign in us as He desires. The Divine Saviour finds our hearts full of desires, affections and vain aspirations. This is not what He wants; He wants to find our heart empty so He can become its one and only Master.

Denial sins, although they do not rob the fire of charity of its force and potential for action, numb it, so to speak, and make it sterile. In brief, these kinds of sins hold us back in our life of holy love.

The Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest is a Society of Apostolic Life of Pontifical Right, composed of secular canons, seminarians, oblates and sisters. The principal patroness of the Institute is Our Lady the Immaculate Conception. It also honours as secondary patrons:

- Saint Benedict, due to the importance given by him to liturgical prayer and the relationship between faith and culture.
- Saint Thomas Aquinas, guide of the intellectual formation of our seminarians.
- Saint Francis de Sales, owing to his spiritual teaching, centred on divine charity and accessible to all.

The goal of the Institute is the glory of God and the sanctification of its priests in the service of the Church and of souls. Its specific end is the diffusion of the reign of Christ in all areas of human life.

The Institute counts more than one hundred and twenty priests and nearly one hundred seminarians and oblates. Numerous diocesan priests are affiliated to the Institute and many lay people also make up our spiritual family. Our Sister Adorers, who now number over sixty, support the ministry of our priests by their prayers and sacrifices.

The Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest is an apostolic community. Its members work in a variety of contexts, including in parishes and education. They also exercise their apostolate with young people and preach retreats. In all of their endeavours, they seek to promote the vast panoply of supernatural and human values on which Christian civilization was founded.
